To the Honorable Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, next to be holden at Bangor, within and for the County of Penobscot, on the last Tuesday of October next.

Delinda A. Boynton of Corinth, in said County, respectfully represents that she was married to Daniel H. Boynton, on the seventeenth day of February, 1866, and that since her marriage she has strictly observed all her marriage vows, but that said Daniel H., unmindful of his duties in that respect, has for the last five years treated your libelant with extreme cruelty and neglect, failing wholly to supply her and their children with the necessaries of life, and finally deserting her in the month of December, 1874, leaving her penniless with three children to support, and has not since supplied her with any of the necessaries of life, and that owing to his extremely dissipated habits, cruel treatment and neglect her life has been rendered miserable.

She also alleges that she has borne to him three children, Frederick R. aged nine years, Edith A. aged six years, and George D. aged four years, and that said Daniel H. Boynton is not a suitable person to have the custody of said children.

Wherefore she prays that a divorce from the bonds of matrimony may be decreed between her and her said husband; and that the custody of said children may be given to her. And your Libelant further alleges that though she has made diligent search for her said husband his residence is wholly unknown to her.
(Signed) DELINDA A. BOYNTON.

Sworn to before me this 8th day of August, 1876.
D. F. DAVIS, Justice of the Peace.

The National Danger.

SPEECH OF SENATOR BOUTWELL

In the Massachusetts Republican State Convention.

In the course of his able speech, on assuming the Chairmanship of the Massachusetts Republican State Convention at Worcester, on Tuesday, Sept. 5, Hon. Geo. S. Boutwell referred to the Southern disorders and the National danger as follows:

The resolution upon the subject passed by the House of Representatives upon the motion of Mr. Scott Lord, a Democrat, the resolution adopted by the Democratic Convention of New York, are alike a confession that these outrages have assumed national importance, and a confession as well that the Democratic party has more power than others to prevent a repetition of them.

If the leaders of the Democratic party were sincere, something might be gained; but they were more prompt to denounce the President for the only measure possible for preventing the outrages of which the resolutions complained than they were in denouncing the outrages themselves, and apparently they were much more in earnest. Moreover, we cannot be otherwise than deeply impressed by the fact that these outrages in their political consequences in the States contribute to the success of the Democratic party in the country, and that an era of real peace in the South would be ruin, utter and complete ruin to their hopes.

Nor should we delude ourselves with the idea that these outrages will neither be repeated in the States where they have occurred, nor imitated in States that are yet under Republican rule. The motive for these outrages not only continues, but its force increases each day as we approach the Presidential election. A large part of the able-bodied white men of the Gulf States are completely armed and enrolled in military organizations, whose designs are aggressive and purely political. On the 12th of August last, less than one month ago, Gov. Chamberlain of South Carolina was announced to speak at Edgefield Court House, in that State. The meeting was called by Republicans, the speakers announced were Republicans exclusively, and yet at the hour a body of six hundred armed men appeared and demanded one-half of the time for Democratic orators. This demand could not be refused.

Gov. Chamberlain spoke, but under great constraint. He was followed by Gen. Butler, of Hamburg fame. The meeting was disturbed from the first, and before the day closed Gov. Chamberlain and the Republicans, chiefly negroes, left the grounds, followed by a Democratic mob engaged in jeering and insulting the Governor and his supporters. Is there any one who does not discern the significance of such a day and such a scene? Is there any one who does not realize what is in store for South Carolina, the firmest of the Republican States? And with stronger reason we can foresee the fate of every State in which the negroes either are a majority, or, combined with whites, can secure a Republican victory. If one State of the eleven is permitted to vote for Gov. Hayes, it will be for the purpose of furnishing evidence that the suffrages of the other ten are not the fruit of fraud or force.

But, gentlemen, there is not a more suggestive and alarming circumstance than the concession which Republicans daily make to each other and to the country, that the South will give a united electoral vote for Mr. Tilden, although we know that in four States our majorities are overwhelming, and that in three others a free canvass and election would give us an even chance of victory. And will you or will any of my countrymen ask me why I give importance, prominence, supremacy to the Southern question? Or say, Why not heed the suggestion that these outrages do not concern us, that we favor local self-government, that in time the people of the South will correct the evils which are now the subject of complaint? I answer that I am not now dealing with the question for the purpose of suggesting remedies for the evils, nor so much for the purpose of fixing the responsibility; the peril is too great, the danger is too iminent, for a discussion whose value is confined, chiefly, to legislative halls.

I am now only anxious that we shall so act as to save the country from the consequences of these wrongs. Unless we all, Democrats as well as Republicans, misjudge public sentiment and the course of events, Gov. Tilden has no chance of an election, except by the votes of States which if left to themselves would support Gov. Hayes. If then, under such circumstances, Gov. Tilden is declared President by the two houses of Congress in February next, his advancement will be due to a usurpation as unscrupulous and as bloody as that by which Napoleon III. passed from the Presidency of France to the throne and title of Emperor of the French.

This is the grave question which now concerns the country. This is the question of questions, which the American people have never been called to consider until now—whether by and through a usurpation begun and carried on in States by organized bodies of armed men the Government of the United States can be seized under the forms of law by the leader of a minority.

If the vote of New York shall be given to Mr. Tilden he will in form be elected President of the United States, and by the votes of States in which the voice of the majority has been stifled by arms. The issue, then, is this: Either Mr. Tilden will be thus elected or he will be defeated by the vote of the State of New York. His election by the honest vote of the country is not possible. It may be doubted whether in these twenty years the country has been in greater peril or the Republican party called to meet graver issues.

But there may be those who, deploring the usurpation of power by a minority, may indulge the hope that the business and business interests of the country will not suffer by a change of administration. We are passing through a period of financial difficulty and consequent depression in business. Those who suffer are likely to fix the responsibility upon the Government, and to look to a change of administration for relief. Promises are welcome to all such, and if they listen to the promises now made by the Democratic party they will find but little to condemn; but if they examine the history of that party for the past twenty years they will find nothing to approve.

The financial difficulties which afflict the country are not local—they are universal. They are as serious in England, Germany, and in India even as in the United States. But if it were otherwise, is it not true that the Republican party has always been active to protect the rights of labor and to promote the business interests of the country? The fifteen years of Republican rule, including even these later days of comparative depression, constitute the most prosperous period of equal length in our annals.

But if you turn to the Democratic party what is the prospect? At least two-thirds of its strength is in the old rebel States—States devoted to the doctrines of free trade and a tariff for revenue only. Do the manufacturers of cotton, wool and iron, do the producers of coal, the laborers in mines, mills and shops imagine that a free trade tariff will improve business already depressed?

Do the farmers, whether in the East or in the West, anticipate better markets for their produce when the manufactures of iron and wool and cotton are transferred from the United States to England and the Continent?

Do the holders of the public securities, the owners of stocks in banks, the laboring men, women and children, whose scanty gains are in savings institutions, imagine that their fortunes and earnings will be more secure and their comfort greater when the preservation of the public credit is entrusted to the Southern wing of the Democratic party? And can those who count the honor of the country as more precious than gold indulge in the delusion that a party which, out of power, has resisted every measure for the improvement of the public debt, will, when raised to power by violence and crime, become at once both wiser than its practice and better than its promise?

Above all, do those who look anxiously for the day when the paper currency of the country shall be as valuable as gold entertain the hope that the Democratic party will encourage a policy of resumption?

But, gentlemen, it ought not to surprise any one that a party which is false to the rights of man should be indifferent to the claims of business and to the honor and good name of the country. In a word, there is not an interest or a right, public or private, that is safe in the hands of the Democratic party. The Democratic party is not the party of the country; it is the party of a section—of a section animated by the spirit of the rebellion. Again, I say the Southern question is the great question. To-day the questions of resumption, of legislation hostile to business, of a policy injurious or fatal to the public credit, all proceed from the circumstance that the citizen negro is not permitted to vote in many of the States of the South. Thus does the law of justice bind us to the negro, and compel us to protect him in his rights as the only means of security to ourselves. Thus his question is our question. Thus are humanity and business, justice and prosperity in public affairs inseparably connected.

Gentlemen, I have thus set forth the dangers to which the country is exposed. They are real dangers, the chief of which is that the Government may be taken under the forms of law but in violation of the constitutional rights of citizens disfranchised by force, and in violation as well of the constitutional rights of us all. These are serious dangers, but they should not give rise to despondency on our part. Rather should they inspire us with courage and confidence. We have never yet appealed in vain to the people. The great State of New York is intelligent and patriotic. The destiny of the country is in its hands. The Republican party is there led by able and honest men, men worthy of a generous support. Gov. Hayes and Mr. Wheeler are without reproach. The principles of the Republican party have been tested. They saved the country in time of war, they will preserve it in time of peace. No other political organization has or has ever had so glorious a record, and if there are spots upon it, we may with pride say that it can bear some spots and yet fear no rival.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS TO-NIGHT.

We hope that our Republican fellow-citizens will turn out in full ranks to attend the general caucus at Norombega Hall, at 7 o'clock this evening. The selection of our Republican candidates for Representatives to the Legislature is an important duty, and the more general the interest manifested in the choice, the more earnest will be the efforts in their support.

We need give no advice as to the selection of candidates, as the Republicans of Bangor will desire to nominate only good men and true who can be triumphantly elected. The public interests and the strengthening of the party should outweigh all merely personal and minor considerations, and we hope the principal rivalry will be in endeavors to promote the success of the Republican cause. Let us have a full and free conference as to preferences, harmonious indorsement of the choice of the majority, and then take hold and give all our candidates a handsome victory on Monday.

Remember, Norombega at 7½ o'clock this evening.

THE WALDO SENATORSHIP.

The Democrats of Waldo County have again nominated Mr. White, who as Senator last year voted to remove the State Capitol from Augusta to Portland. That was his idea of "economy" and of serving the interests of an Eastern constituency.—Citizens of Waldo who would like to be still further removed from the Seat of Government, and who would like to contribute towards one or two hundred thousands of dollars useless expense, can vote for Mr. White.

To Absent Republicans.

Every Republican voter of Maine who is temporarily absent should feel it his duty to return home to vote next Monday. The Democrats are making unusual exertions to get home their absent voters, and the Republicans in every town should take the most prompt and effective measures to secure the return of every absent Republican who can reach home to vote.

To be frank with you, we want the Government, and we mean to get it if we have to murder and slay any number of people. [illegible]

Closing Home Rally.

In accordance with a general desire of our Republican citizens for a Grand Home Rally on Saturday evening before the election, arrangements have been made for a Republican Reunion in Abbott Square on that evening, to listen to brief and spirited addresses from the gentlemen elsewhere announced and others who will be present. The Square will be brilliantly illuminated and the Bangor Cornet Band will discourse its best music. A number of delegations from neighboring communities have accepted invitations to join with us in winding up the campaign, and the exercises will conclude with a grand Torchlight Parade over an extensive route through the principal streets, which will be announced to-morrow morning. It is expected that our Republican citizens will generally and handsomely "light up," and show Bangor's colors in the Centennial Campaign.

THE MODOC WARFARE.

Nothing more disgraceful has been known in the annals of politics than the manner in which the Modoc enemies of Mr. Powers in Aroostook have carried on their malicious warfare. Starting with the assertion that they had the sympathy of all the religious community, no sooner has any respected clergyman denied the fact and expressed a favorable opinion of Mr. Powers, than the spiteful clique have assailed him with slander as viciously as they had assailed Mr. Powers. Rev. Mr. McLeod was subjected to this treatment of abuse in the Houlton Times and the North Star, and since Rev. Thomas Kinney's manly letter appeared in our columns the flood of wrath has been turned against him. In the last issue of the Times—whose proprietors are smarting under heavy damages for maliciously libelling Mr. Powers—an attempt is made to discredit the opinion of Rev. Mr. Kinney, by printing the names of five persons in some way connected with churches in Hodgdon, and one deacon in Houlton, attached to a card, expressing sympathy with the assailants of Mr. Powers. The nature of this feeble pronunciomento and the manner in which signatures were obtained are clearly shown by the following letters:

LETTER FROM DR. BENJ. BUSSEY, JR.

HOULTON, Sept. 7, 1876.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier.

I enclose a statement of Rev. John Morse, Pastor of the Methodist Church in Houlton, at his request. His is the only name attempted to be attached to the denial in the Aroostook Times of Rev. Thos. Kinney's statement, that represents any particular parish or society. The names signed in the Times have been obtained after great effort, and but one, Mr. Barnes, lives in Houlton. Mr. Kinney's statements or reputation would, as they well knew, be but little affected by theirs, unless they could use the name of Mr. Morse, who has a parish and is a minister in the best of standing; and his letter settles any attempt to use his name.

BENJ. BUSSEY, JR., M. D.
Member of the 1st Baptist Church, Houlton.

REV. MR. MORSE'S CARD.

HOULTON, Sept. 7, 1876.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier:

DEAR SIR: In the Houlton Times of this date, Mr. H. O. Gidney says that I wished him to state in the Times that I did not give Mr. Kinney authority to speak for me. I never asked Mr. Gidney to make any such statement. I told him that I did not want my name to be used in this political contest in any way or shape, and I refused to sign Mr. Gidney's article.

JOHN MORSE,
Pastor of M. E. Church of Houlton and Hodgdon.

Tilden has no chance of an election, except by the votes of States which if left to themselves would support Gov. Hayes. If then, under such circumstances, Gov. Tilden is declared President by the two Houses of Congress in February next, his advancement will be due to a usurpation as unscrupulous and as bloody as that by which Napoleon III. passed from the Presidency of France to the throne and title of Emperor of the French."—Hon. Geo. S. Boutwell.

Attend to the Voting Lists!

The Aldermen will be in session every day this week, from 9 A. M., to 12, and from 2 to 5 P. M., to attend to correcting the voting lists. Every Republican should see that his name is properly entered, and also attend to any changes necessary in his neighborhood. The cases of young men who became of age since the last election should be carefully looked after. Have every name on the lists correctly.

Bring Out the Voters!

We urge upon the active Republicans of the various towns the great importance of organized measures for bringing out the full Republican vote. The number of our voters who fail from one cause or another to reach the polls, forms in the aggregate a large percentage and materially affects the result. It is important that teams should be provided and energetic men designated to bring up the distant and tardy voters. We want to add every possible vote to our majority next Monday.

Send in Returns.

The Town Committees and other Republicans throughout this section are earnestly requested to make special effort to forward accurate returns of the election on Monday evening for publication in our columns Tuesday morning.

And now for Maine. Let her follow the example of the Green Mountain State, and roll on the ball for reform and liberty throughout all the land!—Boston Journal.

"It is an act of forbearance to permit a Republican to live in the South."
Gen. Young, Democratic Congressman.

EVERY VOTE CAST FOR AN INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE THIS YEAR IS A VOTE THROWN AWAY.—Oxford Democrat.

The anti-Jerrard "bombshell" has proved a great fizzle, and its projectors are sadly demoralized thereat. The Sheriff disposed of it so effectually that it will help instead of harming him.

EVERY REPUBLICAN OF MAINE SHOULD MAKE SURE TO BE AT HOME TO VOTE ON MONDAY. [illegible]

THE MANK WOMAN MURDERS ANOTHER MAN.

Our readers have probably not forgotten the trial of Lucy Ann Mank or Mink for the murder by shooting of Dr. Baker of Warren. Dr. Baker it will be recollected, had been intimate with Miss Mank and on the fatal night night called to see her at her sister's house. While there there the sister went out leaving the Doctor, Miss Mank and two small children in the house. About 10 o'clock Lucy ran out of the house and notified the neighbors that she had been shot. She was very much excited and as there was no evidence of shooting beyond her word the neighbors took no notice of it. The next morning Dr. Baker was found dead in her room with a bullet in his heart. Miss Mank was charged with the murder and tried at Rockland, but escaped conviction, although the evidence was strong against her. Quite remarkable demonstrations of sympathy were made by the local audience in Court over her acquittal, due largely to a feeling of dislike for the victim.

She removed from the State, and it appears that on Thursday night Aug. 31, she enacted at Lowell, Mass., a role similar to the one she played in Warren. Her victim was Charles Ricker, a young man who had paid her some attention, but had abandoned her on learning that Lula Martin, the name under which she was living, was an assumed name and that she was the same person who murdered Dr. Baker.—Ricker died Saturday, but before his death made the following statement: He had kept company with Miss Mank since Feb. last; but of late has not been so frequent in his attentions. She followed him on the street, and seemed anxious for a renewal of their former intimacy. She invited him to visit her on the night of the fatal shooting, and she was with him two hours at her room, on the third floor of No. 88 Merrimack street. About twenty minutes before she fired the pistol she locked the door. She went to a sink in the room (which was dark as she said, for the reason that she had no kerosene for her lamp) for a drink of water as he supposed. She returned, and standing partially against the door to keep him from going out, and facing him, she fired the pistol when only a foot distant. He didn't see the pistol till the moment she fired, and would not have seen it then but for the reason that he happened to look down. There was no scuffle and no angry words preliminary to the firing. He held her hands after the shot was fired to prevent a second discharge of the pistol, and as soon as his cries brought help, he went to the doctor's office and then to his lodgings. He became acquainted with her several months since at the boarding house of his brother, No. 60 Lawrence Corporation, where she was employed as a domestic at the time. He was quite intimate with her, until he was told by a townsman of his that she was tried at one time for shooting a Dr. Baker of Warren, Me., and narrowly escaped conviction and just punishment as all the neighbors thought, for her offence. Ricker has since died of his wound.

A despatch from Charleston, S. C., reports rioting in that city. As usual with Southern despatches the blame is laid upon the colored people. Later news will probably be more reliable.

PORTLAND ABLAZE

IMMENSE REPUBLICAN DEMONSTRATION!

NEARLY 3000 TORCHES IN LINE!

A GENERAL ILLUMINATION!

Streets Thronged with People!

Nearly 3,000 Torches in Line

PORTLAND, Sept. 7. The Republicans are making a great demonstration in Portland to-night, with a torch-light procession numbering 2,800, which takes half an hour to pass a given point. Companies from the eastward arrived in a train of 22 cars, drawn by two engines, over the Maine Central Railroad. They were escorted to Lancaster Hall, the Republican headquarters, where supper was given.

The Procession

Under command of Gen. Geo. L. Beal, formed at 8 o'clock, in four divisions, near the City Hall. At half-past eight, at the firing of a signal gun from the artillery, it moved towards Munjoy Hill, and thence to the West End, passing through the principal streets, which are finely illuminated, both in private dwellings and by fire works.

First Division.

The First Division, commanded by Maj. H. S. Melcher, consists of the Portland companies, the Pioneer, 80 strong, marching in hollow square, with the Chief Marshal's Staff in the centre, mounted; Co. B, Continentals, 45 torches; Co. C, Washington Guards, in Yankee uniform, striped trowsers and bell crowned white hats, 50 torches; Co. A, Continentals and Co. F, 45 torches. The seven ward companies of Wide Awakes followed: Ward 1, numbering 36, Ward 2, 55, Ward 3, 40, Ward 4, 30, Ward 5, 38, Ward 6, 25, Ward 7, 55, with a company of Boy Cadets, 16. A small cavalcade completed this Division.

The Second Division

was under command of Capt. Matthew Adams, and consisted of the Bangor Hayes and Wheeler Battalion under Col. E. Small, numbering 225; the Blaine Continentals 50 and the Connor Veteran Guards 75 of Augusta, the Connor Guards of Waterville 50.

The Third Division

commanded by Col. Edward Moore, was composed of the Lewiston and Auburn Battalions numbering about 400, the Phinney Guards of Gorham 60, the Hayes Cadets of Gorham, an elegant little company of boys numbering 24.

The Fourth Division

under Major Charles Walker, contained the Biddeford Continentals, 75, the Hayes and Wheeler Guards, of Biddeford, 75, the latter including a Ku-Klux Co., the Saco Continentals, 80, Saco Pioneers, 25, the Hayes and Wheeler Guards of Cape Elizabeth 32, Brunswick Continentals 120, Freeport Hayes and Wheeler Guards 30, and the Bath Hayes and Wheeler Guards 109.

A Splendid Demonstration.

A large number of bands, drum corps, officers, artillery, &c., make up the total number given. A halt for rest will be made on State street and the remainder of the march will take until nearly midnight. There will be no speaking. The streets are full of people and the Republicans are entirely happy with the complete success of the demonstration.

GRAND RALLY AT FRYEBURG.

FRYEBURG, Sept. 7. An enthusiastic Republican meeting was held here this evening addressed by Hon. Wm. P. Frye and Hon. C. G. Williams of Wisconsin. Both spoke with much fervor and acceptance. Mr Frye holds a satisfactory relation with the citizens of this town, bearing as it does the name of his worthy ancestors. Previous to the meeting a large Hayes and Wheeler flag was thrown across Main-st.

OLD YORK AROUSED.

Blaine and Ingersoll at North Berwick.

A large and enthusiastic Republican meeting was held at North Berwick this afternoon. Delegates were present from Berwick, South Berwick, Kittery, Wells, York, Portsmouth and Dover, N. H. There were 2500 present in the Grove. Judge Hobbs presided, introducing Hon. James G. Blaine, who spoke an hour, giving way to Col. Ingersoll of Illinois, who arraigned the Democratic party in his forcible and sarcastic manner to the entire acceptance of the assemblage.

RALLY IN EASTPORT.

EASTPORT, Sept. 7. At the Republican Rally last night the hall was crowded. ex-Gov. Noyes, of Ohio, and Hon. Seth L. Milliken, of Belfast, made very able and eloquent addresses. The Pembroke Band was in attendance.

FROM FARMINGTON.

Democratic Mass Meeting.

FARMINGTON. Sept. 7.

The Democrats of this County held a mass meeting here to-day. Addresses were made by Campbell of Louisiana and C. C. Frost of Auburn. The number attending is estimated at two thousand. Music by the Farmington and West Farmington bands.

Republican Speakers Assaulted by a Mob.

As L. H. Hutchinson and Geo. D. Bisbee, who spoke at a Republican meeting at West's Mills, Industry, last night, were leaving the church after the meeting adjourned they were assaulted by a crowd that had been standing outside shouting for Tilden and reform, with eggs, bags of beans and various missles. A mob also waited for them in ambush by the roadside, and when they discovered that they were on the wrong road came from their cover and made a desperate attempt to overtake and cut off the speakers, but fortunately were unsuccessful.

ROCKLAND, Sept. 7. United States Marshal Marble arrested Clark Thom in this city this morning on the charge of fraud in obtaining naturalization papers and took him to Portland. Thom is a stone cutter at Vinalhaven.

GLORIOUS VERMONT!

MAJORITY INCREASING!

A Gain Over the Vote of 1872!

THE HOUSE SIX-SEVENTHS REPUBLICAN

NOT A DEMOCRAT IN THE SENATE

Nearly Full Returns—The Republican Majority will reach 26,000.

RUTLAND, Sept. 7. Election returns from all but nine towns, show Fairbanks' majority over Bingham to be 24,685. The same towns in 1874, gave Peck 19,950 majority, a Republican gain of 4,735. The nine remaining towns in 1874 gave 263 majority. Fairbanks' majority in the entire State cannot be far from 25,000. The Republican majority for Lieutenant Governor will probably reach 26,000.

Legislature Overwhelmingly Republican—Not a Democrat in the Senate.

The Legislature so far as heard from stands: House, 196 Republicans; 30 Democrats; 2 no choice; 13 towns to be heard from on Legislature vote gave in 1874 9 Republicans and 4 Democrats. In the Senate there is not a single Democrat.

In 1874 there were 50 Democrats in the House and 1 in the Senate.

[In 1874 the Republican majority was 20,324, and in 1872 at the Governor election 25,333. It will be seen that the Republican majority as shown for Lieut. Governor this year is about 6000 greater than that of 1874 and even exceeds the majority of the Presidential year of 1872. Well done Vermont!]

MASSACHUSETTS.

Hotel Burned.

WORCESTER, Sept. 7. The Lake View House, at Lake Quinsigamond, owned by C. M. Gould, was burned last night. Loss $7000, insured for $4000.

Suicide

TAUNTON, Sept. 7. James L. Blood, of this city, aged 30, cut his throat this morning, severing the windpipe, but not the jugular vein. He is still alive, but sinking. Cause, insanity; the result of illness.

Celebration.

BOSTON, Sept. 7. The town of Methuen to-day celebrated the anniversary of its 150th year of existence. A large procession, an oration by Hon. J. K. Tarbox, and a dinner for 1500 people were the main features of the event.

NEW YORK STATE.

Assaulted.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7. A Kingston, N. Y., despatch to the Times and Tribune state that the Republicans while erecting a flag pole yesterday were assaulted by Democrats. A fight ensued, in which several Democrats and four Republicans were shot. One of the wounded is reported dead. A Republican meeting had been broken up and the attempt to cut down the pole and capture the flag by Democrats led to the shooting.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Sentenced to Death.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 7. Gov. Hartranft has issued death warrants for the execution of Thomas Munby, James Carroll, James Boyle, Hugh McGehan, and James Rarty, the Molly Maguires who were recently convicted in Schuylkill county of murder in the first degree. The execution will take place Oct. 3d.

Bank Suspended.

The city bank has suspended; liabilities, $350,000. The assets it is supposed will cover that amount. The depositors are mostly laboring people.

Connecticut Day.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7. Connecticut Day at the Exhibition has been celebrated under rather unfortunate circumstances. A rain fell during the morning, which necessitated a postponement of the review of the Connecticut Military by Gov. Ingersoll, at Camp Israel Washburne, until to-morrow. The dress parade was also postponed. The attendance at the Exposition notwithstanding the weather, was very large. It is calculated that 50,000 persons were on the grounds before 1 o'clock, of whom it is estimated that 7000 were from Connecticut. Many visitors from the Nutmeg State have arrived since the first of the month. The register at the Connecticut State building yesterday contained 950 names. The second Centennial reception of the series to be given by the Governors of the thirteen original States, was held by Gov. Ingersoll in the Connecticut State building, from 1 to 2 o'clock. The affair was entirely informal in character. Among the notables present were Gen. Hawley, and Prof. Wm. Blake, of the Centennial Commission, Major Lewis, of New Haven, Burdett Loomis, John E. Rawley, and the rest of the State Committee.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

A reported Riot, and the Rebel account says it was by Colored Republicans.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 7. A serious riot occurred last night, growing out of a street attack by colored Republicans upon some colored men who had taken a conspicuous part in the Democratic canvass. A small party of whites endeavored to defend the negroes but were overpowered by the number of rioters, after severe fighting in which pistols were freely used on both sides. The rioters held King street, the main thoroughfare, from midnight until sunrise, breaking windows, robbing stores, and attacking and beating indiscriminately every white man who showed his face. A large number of persons were injured, mostly whites. Several of those shot are in a critical condition. Intense excitement prevails, and the general feeling is that the trouble is not yet over. The riotous proceedings of the rice-field strikers on the Combahee have been renewed, and the situation is regarded as serious.

GEORGIA.

Yellow Fever and Great Distress.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7. The Post says despatches from Savannah to the mercantile and Banking firms here, represent great distress in that city, yellow fever having caused a general stoppage of work. Aid is solicited.

CHARLEY ROSS.

Letter from his Kidnappers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7. The World has received the following letter:

There Rivers, Sept. 1st, Sir—We wish to let Mr. Ross know how easily he was mistaken in recognizing Charlie yesterday, without writing to him directly, and we would say that he had his stolen child, Charles, in his presence yesterday, but he will not have him again until the required reward is given, for by the time he reads this, Charlie will be far away from Three Rivers. It was all of an accident that he saw him this time, and would not if the discoverer had kept strict watch over the child day and night.

A Great Race Won by Goldsmith Maid.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sept. 7. Goldsmith Maid won the open to all race to-day easily in three heats, Bodine second, Judge Fullerton third, and Smuggler fourth.—Smuggler went to pieces near the beginning of the first heat and [illegible] in vain, but in the second and third heats he gave promise of winning until the third quarter, when he broke and was brought to a stand still, barely escaping being distanced.—Time [illegible]

ARKANSAS.

The One-Sided Election.

LITTLE ROCK, Sept. 7. Returns come in very slowly, but sufficient news has been received to indicate that the entire Democratic State ticket is elected by a large majority, while the Legislature will be almost entirely Democratic.

FOREIGN NEWS.

THE TURCO-SERVIAN WAR.

Another Battle.

LONDON, Sept. 7. The Times' correspondent at Belgrade telegraphs the following:

"Nothing is certainly known about what is passing in the neighborhood of Abynitz, but there is a strong conviction here that another battle was fought on Monday. Some Russians who have just arrived from the front doubt this. They represent the Servian army as reduced to a mere nothing. Some of the Russian Surgeons are returning home."

Friday's Disaster Confirmed.

LONDON, Sept. 7. The Standard's correspondent says seven Russian medical officers who arrived from Alexinatz, confirm the worst accounts of Friday's disaster. They say the Servians do not hold any position at Alexinatz and confirm the report of the Turkish advance on Belgrade by way of Klazujeratz on the southeast of Montenegro. The Turks cannonaded the whole line from Podgoritza to Spuss on Tuesday, creating the impression that a battle was progressing there. This proves to have been a feint with the object of diverting the attention of the Montenegrins from Medan, which place they are investigating, the Turks desiring to revictual it. They have not succeeded yet and must drive the Montenegrins from the cliffs, 1800 feet high on either side of the gap in which Medun lies, before they can revictual it. The result of the fighting in the northwest is still unknown.

ABYSSINIA.

Troops Massacred.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7. The Herald's Paris despatch states that in Abyssinia 1500 Egyptian troops, with their commander, Rahib Pasha, have been massacred. The Abyssinians afterwards proceeded to Massara, where they seized the garrison. The Government officers escaped on board some ships which happened to be in port, and safely arrived in Suez. The Egyptian government contemplates revenge, and will send fresh troops to the scene of action. Cavalry and artillery are organizing.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Remember the Republican caucus at Norombega Hall this evening.

It was a lovely September afternoon yesterday. Too good to stay in doors.

See in another column the programme for the Republican Camp Fire on Saturday evening.

The excursion made down river yesterday for the benefit of the Sisters of Mercy, was a large one.

The Bucksport and Bangor Railroad bridge across the Penobscot is being covered, which is not a bad idea.

Albert White, Esq., of Orono was re-nominated for Representative to the Legislature Wednesday evening last, with much enthusiasm.

The schooner Phœnix, which was sunk down river a short time ago, has been raised, pumped out, and will be towed to this port for repairs.

E. B. Patten will sell by auction to-day a consignment of goods from a pawn broker's establishment. See his advertisement for a list of the articles.

O. F. Youngs has sent in to our office a cucumber, raised in his garden on Birch street, which measures one foot in circumference and eleven inches in length.

The Town Committee of Brewer, as chosen for the ensuing year, is composed of the following gentlemen: Col. Jasper Hutchings, J. D. Oakes and A. P. Bennett.

The name of the Representative nominated by the class composed of Brewer and Orrington, is Elbridge G. Harlow and not Hastings as incorrectly given yesterday.

The Orients on their base ball tour expect to play the Androscoggins, Bates College nine, Electrics, Resolutes and others.—There is to be a game on the Common to-day.

The following are the newly chosen Directors of the Bangor and Bucksport Railroad: S. F. Hinks, E. B. Gardner, Alonzo Colby, R. P. Buck, Ambrose White, T. H. Swazey, T. N. Egery.

Ex-Governor Noyes, of Ohio, who kindly volunteered to address the Republicans of Brewer Village last evening while en route from Eastport to Augusta, was at the Bangor House last night and leaves this morning to close the campaign at Augusta with an address in Granite Hall this evening.

A despatch from St. John, N. B., says the managers of the Maine portion of the European and North American Railway have asked for a conference with the lately appointed receiver in New Brunswick, with a view to arrangement of matters regarding passengers, freight traffic and fares to put an end to the existing trouble.

The semi-annual session of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars of Maine will be held at Waterville in the Town Hall, Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 10th and 11th.—Half fare over the principal railroads and reduced rates at the hotels in Waterville to members and delegates. The order in the State now numbers over 200 lodges with a membership of over 16,000.

THE CAUCUS. This evening the Republicans of Bangor are invited to meet in Norombega Hall for the purpose of nominating candidates for, Representatives to the next Legislature and the selection of a City Committee. There should, and doubtless will, be a full attendance of the sterling Republicans of the Queen City and a ticket that means victory will be the result.

Somebody was probably surprised on going for his horse hitched on the rear approach to the Custom House to find the animal fastened in another place, the wagon standing in another, the harness broken and the horse cut in several places, all accomplished by his falling or lying down. Several gentlemen found the animal down on the sidewalk and the wagon shafts badly twisted. They righted things in the best manner possible and left them as above.

A NOBLE EXAMPLE. Reuben Bagley, Esq., one of our oldest and staunchest Republicans, who is doing business in Toronto, Canada, returned home a few days since to deposit his ballot for the Republican candidates, a matter which he has never failed to attend to under all circumstances, no matter how far he may be from home. If all our absent voters will take the same interest in coming home to vote the result will be made apparent in our majorities on Monday next.

Ambrose F. Quain, who arrived from Boston Wednesday in charge of officer Clark, came before the S. J. Court, yesterday, and pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing clothing from the vestibule of the High School building last fall and was sentenced to six months at labor in the County Jail. As the juries had been discharged, had Quain not so pleaded, he would have had to remain in jail until next August, awaiting trial, and then perhaps have got the same sentence, but his sharpness in pleading has saved him several months confinement.

THE HIGH SCHOOL. There are now two hundred and ten pupils attending the High School and they are but illy accommodated by the rooms now occupied, twenty-five of the number being unprovided with seats and desks, and there are other inconveniences which should be obviated. Classes are obliged to pass through one recitation room to enter another, and no one but a teacher is aware of the terrible annoyance this is alike to instructors and pupils. The whole building is needed for this school and it is certainly for the interest of the classes to provide ample accommodations.

THE PORTLAND EXCURSION. The Hayes and Wheeler Guards, over one hundred and sixty strong, with a large number of Republicans from this city, and many ladies, took the special train for Portland at 12.30 yesterday afternoon. The Guards marched from City Hall to the depot headed by the Bangor Cornet Band, and the drum corps, both organizations accompanying them. The excursion embraced over four hundred people and was a good one in all respects. It will probably return at 6 o'clock this morning. Company C, Capt. Ricker, was headed by a little Miss Field in Continental costume, bearing a very pretty flag. She is the daughter of the Battalion. The particulars of the torchlight procession in the Forest City will be found in our telegraphic columns.

A GRANDMOTHER'S CARE. A year ago or more an enterprising biddy belonging to Mr. John Robinson, hatched out a brood of chickens which scratched, thrived and grew to henhood. This summer one of these lively birds hatched out a brood of chickens herself, but proved a heartless, as well as a young mother, for she immediately left the small chicks to shift for themselves and resumed the egg business. The older hen, who cared for the unfeeling young biddy, which thus turned her hopeless family adrift, at once assumed the care of the motherless brood and is now teaching them the mysteries of making havoc with the gardens and gathering them under her wings at night with all the care she bestowed upon her own family. The chicks are thriving and in the spring will probably investigate garden beds with all the eagerness of well brought up birds.

THE COBURN CADETS of the State College are soon to have, as has been stated in these columns, a very neat uniform of Navy blue color, which will certainly be more appropriate, all things being considered, than those heretofore worn. These companies are a credit to the college and we are glad to learn that the interest in them has by no manner of means abated. Following are the officers of the companies for the ensuing year:

Company A—Captain, S. W. Gould; 1st Lieutenant, J. C. Lunt; 2d Lieutenant, F. P. Stone; 3d Lieutenant, G. E. Sturgis; 1st Sergeant, C. C. Chamberlain; 2d Sergeant, John Locke, Jr.; 3d Sergeant, H. H. Hartwell; 4th Sergeant, F. J. Oakes; 1st Corporal, L. F. Goodale; 2d Corporal, J. W. Meserve; 3d Corporal, J. W. Cousins; 4th Corporal, E. J. Blake.

Company B—Captain, A. D. Blackington; 1st Lieutenant, E. C. Towne; 2d Lieutenant, R. B. Burns; 3d Lieutenant, S. Shaw; 1st Sergeant, A. J. Caldwell; 2d Sergeant, J. C. Patterson; 3d Sergeant, E. Warriner; 4th Sergeant, G. E. Fernald; 1st Corporal, W. F. Decker; 2d Corporal, J. D. Cutter; 3d Corporal, H. Webster; 4th Corporal, A. T. Merrill.

THE CAMPAIGN.

From Monroe,

LOYAL AND ENTHUSIASTIC.

[For the Whig and Courier.]

On account of the absence of Hon. H. O. Pratt, D. G. Clary of Dixmont addressed the Monroe Republicans Wednesday afternoon. The meeting was held in the new Town Hall, which was well filled. The Monroe Band furnished music for the occasion. Mr. Freeman Atwood acted as Chairman and introduced Mr. Clary. Mr. Clary came forth amid applause and entered at once upon his subject, discussing in an able and eloquent manner the issues of the present campaign. He explained to the satisfaction of all that this was an unusually important campaign and would demonstrate who was loyal and who was not. With an earnestness which always characterizes his oratory, he urged all true men, for the sake of the country and humanity, for the sake of the dear old flag and those who had died to save it, to rally once more as of old and fight for the right till the "loud shout of victory was heard all along the line." He spoke of the doctrine of State Rights at length, dealing heavy blows upon the party that says the States are sovereign. The record of the Democratic party was spoken of in a graphic manner and its vile acts ably denounced, and the speaker, fired with enthusiasm, dug open the grave of the past and displayed the skeleton of the Democratic party. His power as a platform orator is very creditable. He discussed the doings of the late Democratic House, showing that after all of their crying hard times they had not reduced taxation one cent or lightened the burden of the people. Mr. Clary told his audience what caused the hard times, and if there were Democrats present they must have felt guilty. His remarks on Ben. Hill, Sunset Cox, Tucker and Tarbox reminded us of the "First Oration against Cataline." Mr. Clary spoke an hour and a quarter and as his oratory is vehement and rapid he said a good deal in that amount of time. A report cannot be made of the speech that would do it justice, as any one of the large audience will say who were held nearly breathless for over an hour.

E.

BREWER VILLAGE.

An Enthusiastic Demonstration and a Wide Awake Meeting.

Last evening the Republicans of Brewer Lower Village raised a Hayes and Wheeler flag, amid much enthusiasm. Although no particular arrangements were made for a meeting and an address until yesterday afternoon, the Congregational Church was filled with the thinking people of that thriving village, and vicinity, and listened to an eloquent setting forth of the issues now before the people, by ex-Gov. Noyes, of Ohio. There was a torch-light procession made up of companies of both villages, fireworks, and a salute fired. This almost impromptu demonstration was a success in every particular, as is everything which the good people of Brewer undertake. Few rallies are more enthusiastic than this, as it shows that the true spirit is warm there.

EX-GOV. NOYES IN BREWER.

Our enterprising neighbors at Brewer Village, determined not to be outdone in the campaign, flung to the breeze last evening a Hayes and Wheeler flag, and the ceremonies were accompanied with a salute, torch-light procession and fireworks, and concluding with a spirited and eloquent address by ex-Gov. Noyes, of Ohio, in the church.

H. P. Sargent, Esq., called the meeting to order, which was presided over by Hon. J. Wyman Phillips, of Orrington.

The audience were enthusiastic, frequently applauding the able speaker, and at the close gave six rousing cheers for Gov. Noyes and our Republican nominees.

We predict excellent results in Brewer next Monday.

RALLY IN HERMON

[For the Whig and Courier.]

The Republicans of Hermon held a grand meeting Thursday night, which was very eloquently addressed by Gen. John L. Swift. R. B. Miller, Esq., presided, and the meeting was very enthusiastic, and frequently applauded the speakers. At the close rousing cheers were given for the speakers and also for the several Republican candidates. The demonstration foreshadows a large Republican majority, and you may expect a good report from this town.

R.

Orono Republican Caucus.

There was a large and enthusiastic gathering of staunch Republicans at their caucus, which was holden last Wednesday evening, for the nomination of a candidate for Representative to the Legislature. The published call invited them to meet in the Selectmen's room, but long before the hour for opening had arrived it was found that the office, which would seat about fifty, would be too small on account of the large number who desired admission. The meeting was called to order by Samuel Libbey, Esq., Chairman of the Town Committee. After reading the call, J. S. Bennoch, Esq., was elected chairman of the meeting. Owing to the large number present (which was rapidly increasing by the advent of new comers) it was voted to adjourn the caucus to the Town Hall. J. W. Atwell was elected Secretary. The chairman then announced the business of the meeting, and upon the motion of S. Libbey they proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Representative. Albert White, Esq., was unanimously re-nominated as a candidate from the towns of Orono and Glenburn. Mr. White represented the district in the last House in a most acceptable manner. He is a young man, of sound judgment, and is sure to be always found on the side of truth and justice. The nomination is a good one. Mr. White will not only carry the full strength of his own party but will draw largely from the opposition.

Mr. White, not being present, Messrs. James Webster and Samuel Libbey were appointed a committee to inform him of his nomination. During the absence of the committee the time was passed in a most agreeable manner, listening to able and interesting remarks by Hon. Charles Buffum, A. G. Ring, Esq., Rev. G. R. Palmer, Prof. Pike of the State College, W. H. White, Esq., and the chairman of the meeting. At the conclusion of the remarks by the Chair James Webster, Esq., announced that the committee appointed to inform Mr. White of his nomination had attended to that duty and that he was there present. Mr. White was then called for and accepted the nomination with a few pleasing remarks, at the conclusion of which the following resolution was unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That we, as individual Republicans and members of the Republican party, heartily indorse the [illegible] nominations made by the Republican party, and we will use all honorable means to procure their election in the [illegible] contest.

After adopting the above, the meeting adjourned. The Democrats are working hard and have [illegible]

however, are thoroughly aroused, and in the words of the veteran Thurlow Weed, "they are going to make the election very interesting for the Democrats."

SMUGGLER COMING TO MAINE. Col. Russell, desirous of showing his famous stallion to the people and breeders of Maine, has decided to trot him at Portland on Tuesday, Sept. 12; at Gardiner on Saturday, 16th; at Bangor on Friday, 22d, and at St. John on Wednesday, 27th.

The fact that Smuggler won the championship purse for $10,000 at Boston in 1874, recording the fastest stallion time, 2.20, has for the last two years placed him at the head of the stock horses of this country; and since he beat Goldsmith Maid at Cleveland this season, we are bound to place him at the front in reviewing all trotting horses. In his first race this season he made a record of 2.17, in his second race 2.16¼, at Rochester 2.15¼, and at Hartford 2.15¼; thus showing better time as he goes on.

Smuggler was bred in Ohio, taken to Kansas when two years old, where he was used for saddle and farm work till he was six, when he first began to show the speed which this year has so astonished the whole country. He is descended from the fastest running horse this country has ever produced, "American Eclipse," from whose blood he probably gets his wonderful lasting qualities.

A SENSE OF WEARINESS

is often felt by persons who cannot locate any particular disease. If they work, it becomes labor; if they walk, they soon tire; mental efforts become a burden, and even joys are dimmed by the shadow of this weakness which is cast over their lives. Recourse is had sometimes to stimulants of a dangerous character. The advice of physicians to refrain from active labor produces no happy results. Why? The system is debilitated and needs to be built up properly. PERUVIAN SYRUP will do this very thing. Like the electric current, it permeates the entire system, and harmonizing with the corporeal functions, it raises up the enfeebled and brings the color to the cheek again, and hope to the despondent. It does its work promptly and well. Sold by all druggists. eod&w1w sep5

A FEW THINGS THAT WE KNOW. We know that a disordered stomach or liver produces more suffering than any other cause. We know that very few physicians are successful in their treatment of these disorders. We know that DaCosta's Radical Cure will, without the shadow of a doubt, almost immediately relieve and permanently cure all of these distressing symptoms. We know of thousands who are willing to testify that what we say is true to the letter. We know that if you will give it a fair trial you will let us add your name to the "cloud of witnesses." A Theory Borne Out by Facts.

The theory that lack of vigor is the underlying cause of disease is receiving daily confirmation of the most positive kind in the cure of dyspepsia, liver disorders, and kidney, bladder and uterine complaints by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the ruling remedy for maladies attributable to weakness. This superb tonic is never employed without the most beneficial effects. The liver, the bowels, the organs of urination, and indeed the entire system acquires both vigor and regularity through its action, since it gives a healthful impetus to every failing function. It is an incomparable specific for chills and fever, and other maladies of a malarial type, prevents their attacks, is a reliable means of counteracting the effects of undue exposure or fatigue, and soothes as well as strengthens the nervous organism. eod&w1w sep5

VEGETINE

Purifies the Blood, Renovates and Invigorates the Whole System.

Its Medical Properties Are

ALTERATIVE, TONIC, SOLVENT AND DIURETIC.

VEGETINE is made exclusively from the juices of carefully selected barks, roots and herbs, and so strongly concentrated that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula, Scrofulous Humor, Tumors, Cancer, Cancerous Humor, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Syphilitic Diseases, Canker, Faintness at the stomach, and all diseases that arise from impure blood. Sciatica, Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout and Spinal Complaints can only be effectually cured through the blood.

For Ulcers and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, Pustules, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, Tetter, Scald Head and Ringworm VEGETINE has never failed to effect a permanent cure.

For Pains in the Back, Kidney Complaints, Dropsy, Female Weakness, Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine diseases and General Debility, Vegetine acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cures ulceration and regulates the bowels.

For Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Headache, Piles, Nervousness and General Prostration of the Nervous System, no medicine has ever given such perfect satisfaction as the Vegetine. It purifies the blood, cleanses all of the organs, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system.

The remarkable cures effected by Vegetine have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own families.

In fact, Vegetine is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable Blood Purifier yet placed before the public.

UNQUALIFIED APPRECIATION.

BOSTON, Nov. 16, 1875

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.

DEAR SIR—During the past five years I have had ample opportunity to judge of the merit of VEGETINE. My wife has used it for complaints attending a lady of delicate health, with more beneficial results than anything else which she ever tried. I have given it to my children under almost every circumstance attending a large family, and always with marked benefit. I have taken it myself with such great benefit that I cannot find words to express my unqualified appreciation of its goodness.

While performing my duties as a Police Officer in this city, it has been my lot to fall in with a great deal of sickness. I unhesitatingly recommend Vegetine, and I never knew of a case where it did not prove all that was claimed for it. Particularly in cases of a debilitated or impoverished state of the blood its effects are really wonderful, and for all complaints arising from an impure state of the blood it appears to work like a charm, and I do not believe there are any circumstances under which Vegetine can be used with injurious results, and it will always afford me pleasure to give any further information as to what I know about Vegetine.

H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir: This is to certify that I have used your "Blood Preparation" in my family for several years, and I think that for Scrofula or Cankerous Humors or Rheumatic Affections it cannot be excelled; and as a Blood Purifier and spring medicine it is the best thing I have ever used, and I have used almost everything. I can cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine. Yours respectfully,

MRS. A. A. DINSMORE, 19 Russell St.

THE CRICKET'S MISSION.

BY MRS MARY B. DODGE

What are you singing from sun to sun,
Cricket, the long hours through?
Are you telling of what the earth has done,
Or of what it has yet to do?

The rhythm of all that you drone about
Is a melody vague yet dear—
So dear that the summer were dull without
Your answering presence here

A tenderer tint the green leaves wear,
The silence is hushed anew,
And a softer motion is in the air,
Because they are thrilled by you

Again I listen, and still again,
To your monotone's boundless store,
In hope to catch from the low refrain
Some secret of hidden lore,

For, truly, it seems you know it all,
Who never are loath to tell,
From earliest spring to the latest fall,
Whatever you've learned so well.

And yet, O cricket! 'twere wise to think
That your burden from sun to sun
Would fail of a charm could we unlink
Its mysteries one by one.

Enough! enough, on the restful swell
Of your weird notes low and long,
To yield one's soul to the soothing spell
Of dreams that are nursed by song
